

FSM Archives Reunion UPDATED SCHEDULE 9/25/2014

Notes: Associated events not organized by the FSM-A are starred *

Prices given are the full price. We have a sliding scale; please inquire if you need an accommodation.
UC Physical Access Hotline: 510-643-6456

Check out UC's FSM 50th Anniversary Calendar for events before and after the reunion.

<http://events.berkeley.edu/index.php/calendar/sn/fsm.html>

Thursday 9/25 5:00 -- SLATE dinner and reunion for former members and friends. FULL

Friday, 9/26

3:00 onward Sign In at FSM Café, located at the entrance to Moffitt Library

5:30 pm Happy Hour, no-host bar, hors d'oeuvres FSM Cafe Terrace

6:30-8:00 Buffet dinner FSM Cafe Terrace

8:00-10:00 Reflections on participating in FSM: FREE - open to all FSM Cafe Terrace

Saturday, 9/27

Boalt Hall: Carrying It On: Panels, debates and discussions. FREE for reunion registrants, registered students, and low-income. (All others $5 donation).

9:45 am-10:30: Welcome and Memorial: Booth auditorium

10:30 - 12noon: Booth Auditorium: The Right to Vote, the Right to Live: Selma to Ferguson (Plenary).

Speakers: Ben Jealous, former CEO of the NAACP, and Martha Noonan, former Mississippi Freedom Summer volunteer, teacher, community organizer. Moderator: Bettina F. Aptheker, FSM Steering Committee, UCSC Distinguished Professor, UC Presidential Co-Chair, Feminist Critical Race & Ethnic Studies.

12:00 Box Lunch $10 (by prior registration only)

1:30-3:00: Session II Panels

When Values Collide - Room 100. an informal debate about free speech vs. social justice. Moderator: Adam Hochschild, prize-winning author, UC School of Journalism, panelists: FSM vets Paul von Blum Senior Lecturer, African Studies Center, UCLA; and Kathleen Piper, community activist, and Current Cal students.

Building a Movement against Economic Inequality, Room 110: Moderator: Arlie Hochschild, Professor Emerita, Dept. of Sociology, panelists FSM Vet Barbara Garson, author, Down the UP Escalator, How the 99% live in the Great Recession; FSM Ex Comm Stephanie Coontz, Co-chair, Council of American Families, History & Family Studies, Evergreen State College faculty (additional speakers pending)

How did we Get There: Campus Activism before the FSM: Room 105: Moderator and Introductions: Ken Cloke author of The Crossroads of Conflict; Mike Miller: community organizer: the Founding of SLATE: who, what, when, where, why; Peter Franck, Bay Area, lawyer former attorney of Mario Savio: The University Speaker & Politics Ban: Where did it come from and how did we get rid of it(for a while). Herb Mills , former Secretary Treasurer of ILWU 6 : Confronting Persecution: The 1960 anti-HUAC demonstrations. Jo Freeman: Author of "At Berkeley in the 60s" and "The Tyranny of structurelessness": Confronting Racism at Home: The 1963-64 Bay Area Civil Rights Movement. Wendell Brunner, Director of the Department of Health, Contra Costa County: The End of SLATE: It's Legacy and Meaning

3:15-4:45 Session III Panels

Applying What We've Learned to the Environmental, Social and Economic Crises of Today: Room 110 with FSM veterans active in labor, environmental, education, and civil rights organizing, and electoral politics, (city of Richmond)

Challenges to Campus Free Speech and Academic Freedom:, Room 100 Moderator, Hertha Sweet Wong, Prof., Dept. of English, panelists Henry Reichman, chair, AAUP Committee on Academic Freedom and Tenure, Celeste Langan, Prof., Dept. of Eng., Occupy arrestee; Greg Lukianoff, President, FIRE!, (Foundation for Individual Rights in Education) and Yaman Salahi, Asian Law Caucus.

Assessing the Radical Legacy of the Sixties: wins, losses and some Monday morning quarterbacking. Room 105, Moderator: Troy Duster, Chancellor's Professor, Dept. of Sociology; panelists Leon Wofsy, Professor Emeritus, Molecular and Cell Biology, Faculty Peace Committee, Bettina Aptheker, Distinguished Professor, UCSC, UC Presidential Co-Chair, Feminist Critical Race & Ethnic Studies; Rabbi Michael Lerner, FSM Vet, editor Tikkun, Network of Spiritual Progressives

6:00-8:30 (by prior registration only)

Dinner: no-host bar, Sit-down dinner & reminiscing at Bancroft Hotel, 2680 Bancroft Way, $40

8:45-???? Hootenanny and Dance at Ashkenaz, 1317 San Pablo Ave, $12, open to all. Hali Hammer emcees a concert and sing-along with Nancy Schimmel, Country Joe McDonald, Barbara Dane, and Terry Garthwaite plus a Singing Circle (pick your oldie of choice for the group to sing) and post-concert dancing (if we're awake.). Beer, wine, veg. menu available. (no-host).

Sunday, 9/28

10 am-1 pm Brunch Picnic Potluck: Memorial Glade (just North of Doe Library) (FREE with dish to share) or $5.

*2-4:15 World premiere: FSM!, book by Joan Holden, music & lyrics by FSM Vet Bruce Barthol & Daniel Savio poster brownpapertickets Berkeley Reperatory Theatre, 2025 Addison, Berkeley

Tickets now available: brownpapertickets.com Additional performance at 7.

Written by Joan Holden, author of Nickel and Dime (play), with music & lyrics by FSM arrestee Bruce Barthol & FSM descendant Daniel Savio; produced by Stagebridge; historical consultant Lynne Hollander Savio, FSM arrestee, Coordinator: "Rossman Report". Arrestees Steve Lustig and Conn (Ringo) Hallinan had this to say: "...an engaging and creative production that addresses why the issues of Fall, 1964 are relevant today. As an FSM arrestee who ended up in a career at UC Berkeley, I went to the reading and musical workshop expecting to be disappointed -- that the politics (with all the various viewpoints) and the historical moment would not be adequately represented. But to my relief, the talented cast and writers succeeded in capturing many of the intricacies and challenges of the Free Speech Movement with humor and intelligence, and I thoroughly enjoyed myself. Its a shame that there will be such a short run." (SL)

"The FSM was the most complex movement one could ever imagine, but FSM[Free Speech Movement] does an excellent job reflecting the nuances and cross-currents of those four historic months. It also has a sense of humor (maybe a bit more than we had at the time). Will people argue with parts of it? Yeah, well sure, isn't that what we did a lot of back then? Come and enjoy it and we can all fight about it afterwards." (CH) Talkback after the play.

[A preview of the "Chorus of Concerned Citizens" which closes Act I:
"Campuses are turning Red; chaos planned across the nation
Marxist cancer starts to spread; Students dupes of agitation;
Those Berkeley eggheads call this garbage "higher education.."]

*12-2 Berkeley Student Cooperative: BSC Alumni Assn Annual Mtg and Complimentary Lunch at Cloyne
RSVP <https://sites.google.com/a/bsc.coop/alumni/events>

*2-4 Berkeley Student Cooperative: BSC Alumni and Students Celebrating Together at Cloyne Court RSVP
<https://sites.google.com/a/bsc.coop/alumni/events>

*4:30-5:30 Berkeley Historical Society: Bettina Aptheker, "FSM at 50: From COINTEL PRO to the Patriot Act/ From Selma to Ferguson." Veterans Memorial Auditorium

5:30-6:30 Berkeley Historical Society FSM Exhibit and Reception; Veterans Memorial Bldg., 1931 Center St, Berkeley

*7-9:15 FSM!, book by Joan Holden, music & lyrics by FSM Vet Bruce Barthol & Daniel Savio
brownpapertickets

*9:15-?? Berkeley Rep: Stagebridge will be hoasting a get-together for play patrons (afternoon patrons welcome)

*Monday 9/29

10:30-11:30 Berkeley Historical Society, will, by prior arrangement open their FSM exhibit for vets unable to attend on Sunday (due to space limitations, schedule conflicts, or overload).

4-6 Divestment Revisited: UC Berkeley, the Free Speech Movement, and South Africa Divestment Movement Berkeley Art Museum Gund Theater FREE, open to all. Sponsored by Center for African Studies.) A panel of faculty, alumni and students will revisit the anti-Apartheid divestment movement, consider lessons learned, relate the movement to the Free Speech Movement as part of a wider discussion about the University of California, current social movements and social change.

7:30-9:30 (Film Screening, PFA Theater: "Soft Vengeance": Albie Sachs and the New South Africa)
Documentary. PFA Theater

Tuesday 9/30

8:30 @large Ai-Weiwei exhibit. Meet N. Berkeley Bart for 9:30 Ferry, Pier 33. If making other transportation arrangements, check-in for ferry is 9:15. Sign-ups for this trip now closed, Individual tickets are still available on line for this ferry trip and others (www.alcatrazcruises.com)

7:00 An Evening of Political Poetry, 1964 & Today FSM Cafe FREE (space limited, no reservations) with prize-winning Spoken Word poets Josh Healey & Aya de Leon, Director, Poetry for the People, and student poets, plus Poets of the FSM.

Wednesday October 1

Noon-1 50TH ANNIVERSARY RALLY, CARRY IT ON! MARIO SAVIO STEPS, SPROUL PLAZA
Free, open to all.: speakers include Dolores Huerta, FSM Vets Jack Weinberg, Bettina Aptheker, Jackie Goldberg & Lynne Hollander Savio, students.

1:30-3:30 Berkeley Faculty Association Teach-In: The Operation of the Machine: UC Then and now.
Free, open to all. Wheeler, Maude Fife Rm., 315 (limited seating, no reservations). UC Professors Wendy Brown, (Political Science), Tyrone Hayes, (Integrative Biology), Leigh Raiford, (African American Studies), Chris Newfield, Professor, English, UC Santa Barbara; and Amanda Armstrong, Graduate Student, Rhetoric, UC Berkeley will lead a teach-in on the nature of the public university. Looking at the state cutbacks to education funding and the university's increased reliance on private sources, it will examine race and educational access, student debt and rising inequality, the marketization of research, and other pressing issues.

3:30 - 5:30? Intergenerational Dialogue on Campus Activism, with current activist students, FSM Vets, and others, organized by the Progressive Coalition. Wheeler Hall, Maude Fife Room.

Thursday, 10/2, Wheeler Auditorium

4:30-6 Teaching the Free Speech Movement: a Panel for Educators, 370 G Dwinelle Hall. Robert Cohen, professor of history and social studies from NYU, author of Freedom's Orator, will moderate a panel for educators. Veterans of the Free Speech Movement will share their experiences and thoughts on how to convey enduring understandings and explore the history of this period with K-12 students.

8:00 Mario Savio Memorial Lecture, Wheeler Auditorium,, doors open at 7.

FREE, unreserved seating. "Out of the Kitchen, Into the Streets? Restaurant workers and the movement for economic justice" with Saru Jayaraman, Labor Activist and Director, Restaurant Opportunities Centers United (ROC-United), Director, Food Labor Research Center at UCB. Presentation of Mario Savio Young Activist Award.